

Irish Nurses and Midwives Organisation Working Together

Irish Nurses & Midwives Organisation

Seeks

Director of Industrial Relations

The INMO, as the largest professional union for nurses and midwives, represents circa 40,000 members in all disciplines and areas of the Irish health service.

The Organisation provides a full range of services including industrial relations, professional advocacy, professional policy, regulatory support, and continuing education.

Due to a restructuring of the organisation a vacancy has now arisen for a Director of Industrial Relations.

This challenging post will be based in our Dublin Head Office. The post holder will be required to take a lead role, on many relevant IR/HR issues and to constantly demonstrate an awareness of IR/HR trends as they affect nursing/midwifery grades. The post will be demanding and will require the post holder to demonstrate strong leadership, dynamism, communication, teamwork, and excellent organisational skills.

A qualification in, employment law / Industrial Relations is essential. Applicants should have a good working knowledge of the Irish health system and a commitment to the wider trade union movement.

Salary Scale: Programme Manager Grade - Health Service Executive.
