

Irish Nurses and Midwives Organisation
Working Together

The Irish Nurses and Midwives Organisation (INMO), as the largest professional union for nurses and midwives, represents over 40,000 members in all disciplines and areas of the Irish health service.

The Organisation provides a full range of services including industrial relations, professional advocacy, professional policy, regulatory support and continuing education.

The Organisation now wishes to fill the following post:

Student/New Graduate Officer

The post will be filled, under a fixed term contract, for one year which may be renewed for one further year. The post holder will be responsible for:

- Recruiting undergraduate nurses/midwives, developing/delivering services required by these members during their degree programme and in the initial period as a registered nurse/midwife.
- Social Media: In conjunction with our media department seek to greatly enhance the Organisation's activities on social media platforms, enhancing our presence and in particular target members who are under 35.
- Organising: Under the direction of our Deputy General Secretary assist, in collaboration with our Industrial Relations Colleagues, with the Organisation's recruitment and organising activities, for the purpose of increasing our membership through strong recruitment and retention strategy activities. Developing Youth Forums and the INMO's Student Section.

A nursing/midwifery qualification is essential for this post as is recent experience of the undergraduate programmes. The post holder must also have excellent communication and organisational skills, along with a proven commitment to trade unionism and social justice.

The nominated base for this post is our head office in Dublin, however, the post involves travel to third level campuses and placement sites around the country and there is a great deal of flexibility to work from our regional offices.
